

A high percentage of the nations citizens signed up for the no-call list. Were our elected representatives listening or have the lobbyists won again? I would like a list published on the money trail and on how congress votes on this issue. Leave our state law alone or make it stronger not weaker.